True or false?

Kae Ling
and Lorna

Can you spot the truth?

Our Membership Convenor Kae Ling and Communications Convenor Lorna have both written two false statements in their five. But which are true?

We won't publish the answers to these... check your guesses by asking them next time you see them!

Kae Ling

- I can speak Japanese.
- I'm originally from Johor Bahru.
- I'm an alumna of the University of Malaya.
- I dislike spicy food.
- I love meeting people and appreciating the beauty of art, culture and nature.

Lorna

- I bungee-jumped on my 16th birthday.
- I can speak Bahasa Melayu.
- I guided at National Gallery Singapore.
- I go camping regularly.
- I'm studying Islamic art.

Flavour
of the month

Thanks to our member Elena Shim for this idea
from the Pot Luck lunch.

This month we have a dish which many of you may remember from the Pot Luck – a warming Belgian stew thanks to Santhi Nair-Moine: Carbonnade à la Flamande. Santhi recommends making this dish the day before, to allow the flavours to develop. She also has very specific serving suggestions; Belgian fries with mayonnaise and a glass of red wine!

Do let us know if you make it – post your photos to MCG Facebook or Instagram and tag us, or email them to Communications and we'll post. We've seen all your Enak! photos so we know there are some fabulous food photographers out there!

Send YOUR favourite recipe to Communications to be featured.
